

THE CONTENT IN VIRGINIA

The Bourbons Fearful of Losing the State—Ever thing to be Sacrificed to Gain the Legislature New York Tribune

IRVING W. ALLEN—Already there a surrender that the bourgeois will sacrifice Europe

...justices of the peace that a fear that the people will resent and punish the unlawful and unjust to men by which the barbourous obtained a twofold victory: he the legislator a power over the them; the person the governor a veto over the nation laws unjust and partisan as laws without a parallel in any state in the black counties and excite race prejudices the white counties and give the democrats a majority in both branches of the legislature which they grow to two-thirds by the use of county funds. Some of the democratic leaders privately counsel a second resort to violence.

It is reasonably certain that a mere intimation from the president that a resort to fraud or violence would be displeasing to the administration will prevent a resort to either despite the desire is Parson M. S. Thayer, president and chief of the 14,000-member Farmers' and Merchants' Democratic Union at Danville in October 1934, when he said to you: "Mark the necessity of administering the medicine, but not as a dose of medicine administered with better effort. Other parts of the state are looking to you with the warmest of the eye for the solution of our problems."

The alarm of the bourgeois at the prospect of a fight in the legislative contest is partly due to the fact that in the last presidential election Cleveland carried a number of counties by majorities which were meager in the extreme. For example, in 1892 in Bath county we only had 132 Black sa-

Dickinson gave him 54 King and Queen 1896 Mont. gave him only 100 majority in vote of more than 700 Northumberland only 1 vote of more than 100 Portsmouth only 3 vote of more than 200 Princess Anne only 1 vote of more than 100 Roanoke county only in vote of more than 800 Roanoke City only only 10 in a vote of more than 400 Buckingham only 1 majority in a vote more than 5500 Shumondah only 104 in vote of more than 800 Smith only 4 in a vote more than 200 Spottsylvania only 21 in a vote more than 1000

Crest and's total majority in the eighteen con-first vote ever given to a democratic candidate by the state of Virginia. This year the republic with proper support and effort can carry every one of the counties named as well as some others. I mentioned unless the democrats resort to what is called fraud and intimidation and in so doing they will secure a majority on joint ballot in the legislature.

THE ADMINISTRATION AND RECEIPTS.
—
Drifting Along Without Purpose or Policy—No one Doing to Restore Business.
Special to Minneapolis Tribune WASHINGTON, Aug. 31. Five months and ir-

The times are becoming desperate and so our business men here are just hanging on by a thread, hoping that some change will come that will enable them to escape the ruin impending and I learn that a sim-out the lives of our most enterprising, mercurial and unselfish men - who are in despair, and we see that this kind of inevitable ruin before them - less a change can be made. When the new administration took charge of the government, all we assumed that new measures would be adopted

Spain and Ireland, or in Russia. The rules and methods of the republicans were to mediate to the board and Mr. Cleveland would be assured that in force such measures would restore confidence, accelerate business, and make money plenty for all legitimate enterprise. Five months have not and what has been the result. The strain on business men has been gloom have spread further and farther, the vast of our lands are bursting with money piled up of by capitalists who are afraid to loan a dollar to a struggling trade. All the channels of business are choked and dammed because capital cannot be had wherewith to utilize and make available the vast products of our mines, farms, railroads and factories. The country is a vast waste of resources.

The only effort to improve the financial situation consisted in calling together the bankers of New York city and confessing to them that the treasury was unable to keep up gold payments unless it would agree to furnish the gold, thus very near-

There is not a member of the administration continued the business man who seems, to us, mental breadth and grip enough to comprehend the true situation or devise any adequate means of relief and it looks now as if we would have drift along for the next four years helpless and the mercy of wind and tide and heaven knows what will be the result. (In this case, the speaker was referring to the administration of President Hoover.)

other quarter of a century before the democratic party is again entrusted with the control of government. A short five months have sufficed to satisfy business men of all parties that the democratic party is utterly incapable of conceiving much less carrying out any measures adequate to the situation.

men from all parts of the country every day know. There is much impatience exercised on account of the failure of the party in power to do something to restore business confidence.

DEMOCRATIC JEALOUSY,

is one Dr. Ward, a leading mugwump of New York. This fact moves the true democracy to expressions of disappointment and even of grief. The New York Herald says: "It is really melancholy to be told that the Fiskus Achates who accompanied President Cleveland to the Ad-

It calls The Mugwump Demand We want to vote the ticket sirs that's what mean to do—

But we must name the candidate—we do not on that—
And he must be a democrat who is not a democrat.
Our party leaders as you know don't like us

But at us you that tickle after all that's over and gone
Which leaves a lovely bed of rocks to turn back upon
Our former comrades don't admire the view at all.

The question can be settled now without a b fuss

And we are willing to declare our purpose square and flat
To vote for any democrat who's not a democrat

---

Another Model Postmaster.
(Philadelphian's Dream)

General Grant is again reported dying. We does he want the people to do for him now, in or

The author of this coarse and brutal paragraph and the editor of the paper of which it is a characteristic effusion has been appointed, we presume in the place of an offensive partisan, a to whitel Vilas construes to mean the editor of a publican newspaper.

Harrisburg Independent.
At a negro wedding, when the minister read witness, "Love, honor and obey," the groom in response said:
"Read that again, sah, read it wimco min', so' lady kin ketch de full solemnity of de occasion.
been married befo."

